The above-named offender was sentenced on March 9, 2010, by the Honorable Gary L. Sharpe, United States District Court Judge in the Northern District of New York to time served (24 months and 6 days) followed by 8 years of supervised release, with a special assessment fee in the amount of $100. The following special conditions were also imposed: (1) The offender shall participate in a program for substance abuse, which shall include testing for drug and/or alcohol use and may include inpatient and/or outpatient treatment as approved by the Probation Department; (2) The offender shall contribute to the cost of any evaluation, testing, treatment and/or monitoring services rendered, in an amount to be determined by the probation officer; (3) The offender shall refrain from the use of alcohol while under supervision; (4) The offender shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, effects, computer, electronic communications devices, and any data storage devices or media, to search at any time, with or without a warrant, with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release or unlawful conduct by the offender; (5) The offender shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.

This sentence followed the offender's conviction for Conspiracy to Possess with Intent to Distribute and Distribution of More Than 500 Grams of Cocaine, a violation of 21 U.S.C. 846; 841(a)(1); (b)(1)(B) and 851, a Class A felony. The undersigned officer recently requested of the Northern District of New York a modification of the offender's conditions to include placement into a residential re-entry center, (due to the offender's continued use of marijuana), and it has since been approved. The undersigned officer simultaneously requested a Transfer of Jurisdiction from the Northern District of New York, in order for our Court to handle any future matters that may arise during the offender's supervision term. Their Court has agreed to a transfer of jurisdiction for Mr. Taylor, as indicated on the attached two (2) Probation Forms 22, executed by the Honorable Gary L.
